

German Speaking Customer Support/Sales Specialist

Nordic Recruitment & Consulting is specialized in helping talented language speaking professionals, and especially but not only those who master one or more Nordic languages, to discover better career opportunities. Free of charge, of course.

Our client-affiliate company is expanding rapidly and is looking for self-motivated and proactive people with the ability to sell and to service clients online and on the phone. Ideal candidates are flexible with excellent communication skills, proactive and have strong attention to details.

They are creating a work environment that stimulates staff to perform at optimum levels through excellent and continuous training as well as modern cutting-edge tech company staff policies and company culture.

Your key responsibilities will be:

- Providing high quality service and support our clients via email, phone and chat.
- Proactive communication with customers to increase customer retention and value by providing excellent customer service.
- Being connected to the job.

Main requirements are:

- Very good German (C1-C2 level preferred)
- Good English is required for the communication in the office.
- Ability to reach targets.
- Good computer literacy.
- High communication skills, multitasking.
- Result-oriented professional.
- Excellent time management.
- Enthusiastic and hardworking.

Benefits:

- Competitive base salary with attractive performance bonuses.
- Excellent multinational business environment
- Career growth possibilities

Contact:

Mikko Saarinen

mikko.saarinen@nordicconsulting.org, +359 899 844342

<http://nordicconsulting.org/>